

Senator Leatherman Reports

Hugh K. Leatherman

Report From the Senate Floor

Annual Sales Tax Holiday To Occur August 6th Weekend

Many of you are familiar with the South Carolina sales tax holiday which was established for purchasing all of your needed back-to-school supplies. This holiday allows for a tax exemption on items such as shoes, clothes, clothing accessories, towels, bed linens and school supplies like notebooks, pencils, paper and computers.

The holiday, good for the mentioned items in any store across the state, will begin Friday, August 6 at 12:01 a.m. and will end at 12:00 midnight on Sunday, August 8.

For your convenience, I have provided a link to the tax holiday information page from the South Carolina Department of Revenue, which will allow you to view all of the items exempt during the upcoming tax holiday weekend.
